Destination Weddings

Imagine getting married on a sandy beach, a glacier or on a hillside in Europe. These are only a few of the locations where you could have a destination wedding.

Many couples today are choosing destination weddings.

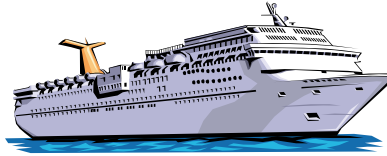

Some of the reasons couples have mentioned for having destination weddings are:

- Often smaller, more intimate weddings.
- Less stress.
- Opportunity for travel discounts.
- Opportunity for family and friends to meet and celebrate in a relaxed setting .
- Provides central meeting point when most guests live in scattered locations.
- Often less expensive than traditional weddings. GREAT Values!

Cruises

There are countless options available for a “cruise wedding.”

Many cruise lines offer various options for weddings. You can get married prior to sailing (onboard the ship) or at an exotic port of call. On Princess Cruise Lines, passengers can even be married onboard ship, while at sea.

A cruise provides an opportunity for a small, intimate wedding , a large gathering of family and friends, or anything in-between. The two of you can celebrate by yourselves or you can choose a full reception. Cruise lines that offer wedding options have wedding consultants who will assist you in having the wedding of your dreams.

When arranging a cruise wedding, it may be possible to arrange special, low fares for you and your guests. Your group may also be eligible for special amenities like shipboard credit, a cocktail party, complimentary wine or many other options. Depending on the number of people in your group you might even earn FREE cruises. At Leisure Travel USA, we can help you to get the most for your money.

Resorts

If you don't want to sail into your new life on a cruise ship, many destination resorts offer special packages for “wedding-moons,” where a couple has a wedding at the resort and then stays for their honeymoon. These weddings can be just the bride and groom or a large reunion.

You could get married at a beach resort in the Caribbean or Hawaii. Or you could get married in the snow at a ski resort.

Other Locations

With destination weddings it is possible to get married almost anywhere you dream of. Some other popular destination wedding ideas are:

- Walt Disney World
- Disneyland
- Las Vegas
- Country Estates
- Southern Plantations
- Europe
